LEGAL NOTICE NO. 69 OF 1981

THE WAGES ACT, 1964

(Act No. 16 of 1964)

THE REGULATION OF WAGES (WATCHING AND PROTECTIVE SERVICES INDUSTRY) ORDER, 1981

(Under section 11)

In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 11 of the Wages Act, 1964 the Deputy Prime Minister hereby makes the following Order:-

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as the Regulation of Wages (Watching and Protective Services Industry) Order, 1981 and shall come into force on the 2nd October, 1981.

Application.

2. (1) This Order shall apply to all persons employed in detective, investigative, patrolling and nightwatching services providing protection against burglary, fire, personal injury and similar services connected with or related to the foregoing.

(2) This Order shall not apply to persons employed by—

- (a) the Government;
- (b) a local authority;
- (c) such religious, charitable organisation, educational or medical institution as may be exempted in writing by the Minister.

Interpretation.

3. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires —

“Clerk” means an employee engaged on full-time general clerical duties;

“Group A” means an employee, other than a patrol supervisor, with three months or less continuous service;

“Group B” means an employee with more than three months but less than twelve months continuous service;

“Group C” means an employee, other than a patrol supervisor, with more than twelve months continuous service;

“Group D” means a patrol supervisor Grade II;

“Group E” means a patrol supervisor Grade I;

“Telephonist” means any person who is literate, fluent in the siSwati and English languages and able to operate a telephone in a courteous and efficient manner.

Basic minimum wage.

4. The basic minimum wage to be paid to an employee to whom this order applies shall be deemed to include a ration allowance and shall be calculated at a rate not less favourable than that specified in the Schedule hereto.

Hours of work.

5. The basic working week shall consist of seventy-two working hours spread over a period of six days.

Overtime.

6. An employee who is required to be on duty and work in excess of the hours specified in paragraph 5 shall be entitled to be paid for such overtime at the rate of one and one half times his normal hourly rate of wages. Normal hourly rate of wages shall mean his monthly rate of wages divided by three hundred and twelve.

Annual leave.

7. (1) On completion of each period of twelve months continuous service, an employee shall be entitled to an annual leave of not less than twenty-one days with full pay.

(2) Where the employment of an employee is terminated before he has taken his entitlement of leave under this paragraph, he shall be paid, in lieu of such leave, a sum equal to one and three quarters days wages in respect of each month he has earned but not taken leave.

Sick leave.

8. After three months continuous service with his employer, an employee shall be entitled to fourteen days sick leave with full pay and a further period of fourteen days on half pay in each period of twelve months employment, subject to him submitting to his employer a medical certificate covering the period of absence, signed by a medical practitioner registered in Swaziland.

Day-off.

9. An employee shall be entitled to one day off-work in each week; provided that the employer and employee may mutually agree that the day-off may be deferred so as to allow the employee to accumulate a total of four days off-work.

Maternity leave.

10. A female employee who becomes pregnant during the period of her employment shall be granted up to five months leave without pay and shall be entitled to resume duty in the position she occupied prior to such leave. The timing of such leave shall be subject to the mutual agreement of the employer and the employee.

Travelling Expenses.

11. (1) Any employee who travels on duty and remains away from his place of residence shall be reimbursed all expenses of lodging and meals incurred through such travel on production of receipts covering the expenditure:

Provided that an employee who is required to remain away from his place of residence on duty for more than six days shall be deemed to be transferred to his new place of employment, whereupon the payment of expenses under this paragraph shall cease and the employer shall thereafter provide him only with suitable accommodation or payment in lieu thereof.

Lay-off.

12. (1) A lay-off due to circumstances beyond an employer's control shall not exceed fourteen working days. Such lay-off shall be without pay and at the end of such period the employer shall either re-instate an employee or terminate his employment in accordance with the Employment Act, 1962.

(2) During the lay-off the employer shall not engage any other employee to fill a vacancy created by the lay-off.

(3) The employer shall give a lay-off notice of not less than twenty-four hours to an employee before the lay-off.

Pay-day.

13. An employee shall be paid not later than three days after the end of a pay period.

Savings.

14. An employee who at the commencement of this Order is entitled to benefits greater than those specified in this Order, shall not suffer any reduction in such benefits by reason of this Order.

Uniforms etc.

15. (1) The employer of a guard or watchman shall provide him or her free of charge with —

- (a) boots (shoes for female guards) a police whistle, a club, and torch; and
- (b) a hat and overcoat when reasonably required under the prevailing weather conditions.

(2) Any clothing or equipment referred to in sub-paragraph (1) shall be of reasonable quality and shall remain the property of the employer.

Revocation of Legal Notice No. 60 of 1980.

16. The Regulation of Wages (Watching and Protective Services Industry) Order, 1980 is hereby revoked.
